Fall Retreat

Retreat Theme:
How Much is Enough
Ruah Swennerfelt
Presenter

Oct. 13th - 15th 2017

“Not enough time? Money?
Peace? Can less be more?
What really matters to you?”

This retreat will examine this topic further.

Biography of Ruah Swennerfelt

Ruah Swennerfelt is a founding member of Transition Town Charlotte and a member of Burlington Friends Meeting (Quakers) in Vermont, USA. She served as General Secretary for Quaker Earthcare Witness (QEW) for 17 years. During her tenure with QEW she helped Friends and Friends Meetings to become aware of the spiritual relationship that humans have with Earth and to make changes in their lives that would bring them more in harmony with that relationship. After leaving her work at QEW, Ruah traveled in Israel, Europe, and parts of the United States interviewing people involved in Transition and visiting their Initiatives. Much of what she learned from those visits inspired the writing of her book, Rising to the Challenge: The Transition Movement and People of Faith, published in 2016 by Quaker Institute for the Future. Ruah currently serves as president of the Transition Town Charlotte board, serves on the Transition US Collaborative Design Council, and as clerk of the New England Yearly Meeting Earthcare Ministry Committee. She has given many presentations, workshops, and keynote talks across North America and in England. She has written numerous articles for BeFriending Creation, Friends Journal, and Quaker Life. She has authored and co-authored chapters in several books. She blogs at <transitionvision.org>.
